

Package substrate

A horizontal light gray rectangular block with a black border, representing the package substrate. It is the bottom-most layer of the stack.