

CS 758 Progress Report Grading Rubric

Name(s): _____

Overall Score: _____ / 10

Area	4	3	2	1
Revised Proposal		Clearly establishes context, scope, goals, and methods for evaluation.	Discussed context, scope, goals, and methods for evaluation.	Mentioned context, scope, goals, and proposed methods for evaluation.
Accomplishments since Project Proposal	One or more sub-parts of project complete. Analysis of the results demonstrate clear understanding of accomplishment, or a clear plan to address the encountered issues.	One or more sub-parts of project complete, but analysis of completed component missing or no clear plan to address encountered issues.	One or more sub-parts of project started, but either no analysis of progress or clear plan to address encountered issues.	Little or no research progress since project proposal.
Related Work		At least 5 related work references, with clear plan for addressing additional related work and clear explanation about how proposed work relates to and differs from these references, or how these references have evolved direction of project.	4 related work references, but either no plan to address related work, or no explanation about relationship between related work and project.	3 or fewer related work references, no plan to address related work, no explanation about relationship between related work and project, or related work is unrelated to project.

Comments: