

CS 540 Introduction to Artificial Intelligence

Midterm Information

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Fall 2026 Sections 1 & 2

Midterm Information

- Time: 23 Oct 2026, 5:45 PM - 7:15 PM, Humanities Building Room 2340
 - Alternate exam: 22 Oct 2026, 5:45 PM - 7:15 PM, Noland Hall 168
 - Students with McBurney accommodations should have received an email with additional information.
- Topics: Topics covered up to and including last week (up to Multi-layer perceptron)
- Cheat sheet: a single piece of paper, front and back, handwritten or printed
- Calculator: optional; it must NOT have an Internet connection
- Bring: your WISC ID, pencil (No 2 or softer), your 1-sheet notes.
- Please stop when we say stop. If you don't, there will be a penalty.
- Read instructions on the first page of the practice exam.

Midterm Information (cont'd)

- Arrive a little early and be seated by 5:45pm.
 - We will start immediately.
 - No extra time at the end if you start late.
- Don't turn the first page until instructed to do so.
- Fill out your name and other info on your Scantron sheet.
- Format: MCQ (5 candidates per question)
 - 30 questions in total. All carry the same weight.
 - Some questions are harder than the others. Don't spend too much time on one question.
- Exam will be challenging (shooting for a median score of 60%)